

The Vanessa Louise Hall Memorial Scholarship
at Northern High School

Paul Burroughs Hall and Louise Carden Hall, in loving memory of their daughter, Vanessa Louise Hall, with love and appreciation for beloved teachers, staff and students at Northern High School, in consideration of their abiding interest in and love for Northern High School, and in consideration of their belief that education is extremely valuable both for individuals and the society in which they live, have established the Vanessa Louise Hall Memorial Scholarship at Northern High School.

Vanessa Louise Hall, along with her mother, brother and several aunts and uncles graduated from Northern High School. Her mother, Louise Carden Hall, taught Mathematics at Northern High School. Northern High School has been significant in Vanessa Louise Hall's family!

Vanessa was an exemplary student at Northern High School. She loved dance and was active in community service through numerous organizations. Vanessa died tragically on February 11, 1998, from injuries sustained in an automobile crash. Vanessa had been accepted to attend the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.
